

- A message from the Reverend Roy Woodhams
- The post has now been advertised twice. On the first occasion there were no applicants and on the second occasion there were two applicants.
- The shortlisting panel (comprising the 4 parish reps, the patrons, the Area Dean, Archdeacon and Bishop) met to discuss the applications, and after serious consideration of a number of factors decided not to call either applicant to interview.
- The panel realise that this is a disappointment but wish to assure the parishes that they remain totally committed to recruiting a quality candidate for the post.
- There will be a further round of advertising across the summer, and it is hoped to interview candidates in the autumn.

Giving to the Work of the Church

By using (and completing) one of our gift envelopes, the value of your contribution is increased by 25p for every £1 given (if you are a standard rate taxpayer). The parish is dependent, solely on the offerings of the congregation for its day-to-day running. If you would like to know details of how to give regularly, please speak to the Treasurer, June Price (208277).

A thank you to the people huge who supported, and organised, this year's Lent lunches. To be precise it was just two Lent lunches in Dunsfold and a Lent breakfast in Hascombe. The total raised for the Bishop of Guildford's Community Fund was £710. Thank you to everyone concerned.

Collect

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy:
 increase and multiply upon us your mercy;
 that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal;
 grant this, heavenly Father,
 for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake,
 who is alive and reigns with you,
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever. Amen

The Ven Catharine Mabuza

Catharine Mabuza has been Archdeacon of Surrey since March 2024.

- She is the first woman archdeacon in the Diocese of Guildford and the first woman to hold the role of Archdeacon of Surrey since the post was created in the early 1100s.
- Catharine is inspired by the words of St Irenaeus, that 'the Glory of God is a human being fully alive', and in her role as Archdeacon wants to support and inspire those she leads and works alongside to be fully alive as the people God made them to be.
- Before moving to this role, Catharine led a large multi-congregational church in Warfield in the Diocese of Oxford, and was also Area Dean of Bracknell. Previously she was Parish Development Advisor in the Archdeaconry of Berkshire.
- Born and raised in Manchester, she read Theology at Oxford University before a management role at Royal Mail and then ordination training at Ridley Hall, Cambridge. She was ordained in the Diocese of Monmouth in 2001.
- In her spare time, Catharine loves being outdoors – walking, cycling, or gardening.
